Mrs. Dr. R. W. Ware has gone to La Grange, Ky., to visit relatives. She will also visit friends in Lexington before her return and will be absent until after the holidays.

C. E. Warrack leaves this evening for Bremen to visit his friends and will be absent about three months. He has been five years since he visited home and will have with the good wishes of many friends. —Clarksville Leaf Chronicle.

Tax and Taxes Taxed.

All persons owing taxes for 1899 and 1900 must come forward and settle immediately. The claims against the county and State must be paid.

M. W. West, Sheriff.

The Sick.

Mrs. H. B. Garner is quite sick.

Mrs. J. D. Ware continues very ill, with but little if any improvement in her condition.

Mrs. W. T. Williamson is still in a very bad state of health.

Mrs. W. B. Lanier, who has been down with pneumonia, is slightly improved.

Bob Green is quite sick from the effects of injuries received by running against a counter.

A GOOD THING!

To our friends and customers: We are pleased to inform you that we now have a cure for chills, which is perfectly sweet. It has no taste at all. It will cure any case of Chills. Quit taking the bitter Chills Tonic, and let us sell you a bottle of Peppermint's Sweet Chills Cure! Price 50 cents. One bottle holds enough to cure two or three cases of Chills. Come and let us show it to you. —Your Friend,

BECKNER LEAVELL, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Bishop T. U. Dudley preached at the Episcopal church Sunday morning to a large congregation. Six persons were confirmed at the evening service.

Catarth.

In the head.

Is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy.

Like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies the blood, makes the weak strong, restores health. Try it now.

Mr. Geo. Bradley and wife were thrown from a buggy by the overturning of the vehicle Friday, on the Clarksville pike, but both escaped without serious injuries, although they sustained some ugly bruises. Their little daughter, who was also in the buggy, was not hurt at all.

Al Field can always count on a good house in Hopkinsville. He is pronounced a favorite in minstrelsy as Fred Ward, is in tragedy, or Wandering on the lecture platform. He comes around every November and always brings the latest novelties in the burnt cork line, served up in a style at once original and entertaining. His show is moreover a clean one and in this respect differs from most minstrel performances. Al will be here to-morrow night with perhaps the strongest and best company he has ever had and enough seats have already been sold to guarantee a full house.

It is dangerous to neglect catarrh, for it leads to bronchitis and consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh in all forms.

Owing to the negligence or inefficiency of postal clerks on the railroads, the KENTUCKIAN's subscribers on the C. & P. road are having a great deal of trouble in getting their papers. A letter from Oak Grove says the papers never arrive until they are from one to three days old, whereas they should be delivered on the morning of publication. The fault is not with us, nor with the postoffice here. The papers for Tuesday and Friday are always put in the office in time to be sent off at 10 o'clock Monday and Thursday nights and should be received via Princeton on the early train the next morning. That this is not the case is due to improper handling after the bundles leave this city. Our subscribers are assured that we will do all in our power to locate and correct the trouble.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Destroyed by Fire.

The dwelling house of Mr. Miles Cox, of Bellview, was consumed by fire on the night of the 18th. His year's supply of provisions, and the most of the family's clothing were also burned. Mr. Cox had no insurance, hence his loss was total, amounting to about $500. A defective flue caused the fire.

The Clerkship Contest.

The Cowan-Prowse contest, continued in October at the instance of the defendant, will come up again next Monday and it is safe to say no further postponements will be allowed. Nearly four months have been taken up with the work of taking depositions and the mass of manuscript that has accumulated amounts to thousands of pages. The majority for Prowse, Republican, on the face of the returns was five votes, not including the erased vote of J. N. L. ng. Crofton, counted for him by mistake.

Shot in the Hand.

Jared Shelton was shot in the left hand by Constable Jno. Renshaw at Crofton Saturday night. It seems that Shelton was under arrest charged with carrying a pistol, and some trouble arising between Renshaw and the prisoner, Renshaw drew his pistol and presented it at Shelton's breast. Shelton quickly slapped the pistol to one side when it was discharged, the ball going through his hand, making a painful, though not serious wound. Renshaw was taken into custody by Marshal Higgins and an examining trial will be held to-day before Police Judge Volney Clark.

Rev. Kendall's Departure.

Rev. John G. Kendall, late pastor of the Baptist church at Casky, leaves with his family to-day for Waco, Tex., where he has decided to locate. Mr. Kendall is a minister of high standing in his denomination in this State. Popular as a preacher and as a man, his departure gives genuine regret to a large circle of friends who are not confined to his church membership and near neighbors. For several years he had had charge of both the Casky and Olivet churches and under his earnest and faithful ministrations his churches have prospered and constantly grown in membership. To him and his excellent family the Kentucky tax extends its best wishes for a successful experience in their new home; and to those among whom Mr. Kendall's lot will be cast it commends him as an able, fervent and devoted preacher and pastor, and a genial gentleman who makes friends wherever he goes, by his noble traits and modest but genuine worth as a man.

Primaries To-day.

Primary elections will be held in all the wards of the city to-day to nominate Democratic candidates for Councilmen and city attorney. For the latter office there is but one candidate, as Mr. G. M. Bell has been given a clear track. In four of the seven wards the nominees can already be foretold. These are Dr. J. M. Dennis in the First, M. C. Forbes in the Second, E. W. Dabney in the Fourth and H. W. Tibbs in the Fifth. In the other three there are spirited contests, the prettiest fight being in the Seventh. Last week there were three pretty evenly balanced candidates in this ward, but Mr. D. C. Cary has pulled off and Messrs. G. H. Johnson and W. J. Withers will run a close and doubtful race to-day's election. In the Third Mr. Geo. W. Shaw and Mr. R. T. Petree will be voted for, though they are not actively canvassing for votes. Either of them will be good material. The situation is still unsettled in the Sixth, though Mr. DeTreville has withdrawn, leaving Messrs. Plack, Ragdale and Collins on the track, though none of them are candidates in the sense of conducting a personal canvass.

Clerks and Voting Places.

First Ward—City court room, Gid Gooch, clerk.

Second Ward—Merritt's grocery, R. H. Holland, clerk.

Third Ward—Gaiter's warehouse, Willis G. Perry, clerk.

Fourth Ward—Wheeler & Edmundson's coal office, Geo. Bradley, clerk.

Fifth Ward—Lowry's steamery, Sam Walker, clerk.

Sixth Ward—Faulk's coal yard, Chas. H. Anderson, clerk.

Seventh Ward—Armstrong's stable, R. M. Hurt, clerk.

The polls will be paid $1.00 per day, the seven nominees to foot the bills by paying an assessment of $1.00 each.

The polls will be opened at 8 o'clock and will be kept open until 7 o'clock, p. m., not closing at the dinner hour. A book will be kept to register the names of all who vote.

The young people had a very enjoyable dance at Anderson's hall Thursday night. An Italian band made the music.

A Lucky Lady.

MILAN, TEX., Sept. 23.—Mrs. W. Combs, of Humboldt, Tex., a former resident of this place, has recently fallen heir to half a million dollars left by her Scotch grandfather. She has forwarded proof of her relationship to the lawyers and will receive her inheritance to-day. —Evening Mail and Express, New York, Sept. 23d, 1900.

We are Mrs. Combs' lawyers and by her seeing our advertisement became the agents of her good fortune. We have a number of similar claims in our hands and expect to gain them. If your ancestors came from the old country write us and enclose 25 cents for reply. There are more than half a billion dollars in Great Britain alone unclaimed, which rightly belong to people in the United States.

Sunday was one of those bright, delightful days that do not come often in winter in climates less favored than ours.

Dr. J. P. Thomas, of South Christian, is contemplating locating in this city at an early date for the practice of his profession.

Col. Napoleon Glover, of Church Hill, has a field of clover in full bloom. It is of the red variety and is somewhat of a curiosity at this season.

Al. Field's will be greeted by a jammed house to-morrow night. He is by long odds the most popular minstrel man who comes to Hopkinsville.

The young ladies of the Baptist church will give a candy pulling at Ragdale's warehouse Friday evening at seven o'clock sharp. Admission 15 cents.

Nourse & Moore, the enterprising Ninth street grocers, have just had completed an elegant express wagon to be used in handling heavy goods from the depot.

The Henderson Journal says Mr. Tom W. Buckner has taken the agency of the Southern Building and Loan Association, of Atlanta, Ga., and will have his headquarters at Louisville.

Mr. R. T. Word has purchased the property of Mr. C. D. Davis, merchant at Beverly, and Mr. Davis will move to Herndon, where he will open a general merchandise store in the house recently occupied by Jackson, Gossett & Co.

S. B. Erwin, Bowling Green, M. D. Davis, Beverly, W. T. Winn, Henderson and P. H. Hanley, Caney, were chosen delegates to the National Union at Ocala, Fla., in December. Alternates, W. R. Browder, S. S. Nix, G. H. Myers and R. E. Robinson.

The freshly plastered walls of Mr. A. A. Metz's new house on South Main have been so defaced by loafers, some of whom boldly scratched initials on them, that Mr. Metz has been compelled to post his premises to keep out intruders until he can complete his house and move into it.

The farmers are getting impatient for a "hog killing spell." The corn crop is short this year and the late winter is forcing the farmers to feed their hogs longer than usual. Most of them, however, will profit by last winter's experience and not kill their meat in uncertain weather and run the risk of losing it again.

The Nat Gaiter Co., tobacco commission merchants, insert their warehouse card in this issue, and their sales will hereafter appear regularly. This reliable firm gives four months' free storage and farmers consigning their tobacco to them can rely upon it that the best prices will be obtained and fair treatment assured them.

Mr. R. H. DeTreville desires us to say that he is not a candidate for Councilman in the Sixth Ward. His business is such that he could not act if elected and give the duties of the position proper attention. Mr. DeTreville had a strong following in the race and would have made a good race if he had been nominated by his party as he is very popular with both Democrats and Republicans.

The Peerless Minstrels gave an excellent entertainment at the Guthrie opera house Friday night. The patronage was not so large as it might have been had the prices been smaller, but a very appreciative audience greeted them. The best people in the place attended and showed their high appreciation of the rendition of each part by loud and frequent entores. The boys were elegantly entertained and all were highly pleased with the trip. The troupe returned to this city Saturday morning.

The two express trains, Nos. 91 and 92, run between Chicago and Nashville for the past year, were discontinued Saturday. The contract between the L. & N. and the Chicago and the Eastern Illinois expired, and as no extra connections were made by those trains since the new schedule of the southern trains went into effect, a new contract was not entered into.

Tom Edmundson has just opened a new saloon at his old stand—6 doors from Railroad street. Everything is strictly new (except his liquors) and first-class in every particular. As has always been his custom he will keep the best brands of old liquors that can be procured. In the front part of his house and separate from the saloon, can be found a full stock of the finest cigars and tobaccos.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Anderson Bacon, col., for drunkenness, was given 8 days at hard labor at the work house.

Everything is extremely quiet in police circles now.

Children Enjoy.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative or if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

A called meeting of the board of trustees of the County Colored Alliance will be held at L. Bell's hall, Saturday, Nov. 24, at 11 o'clock to transact important business.

In this issue appears the warehouse card of Hanbury & Shyer, located on Railroad street, between Tenth and Eleventh. This firm has been engaged in the tobacco business for several years and has not failed to please its customers. Realizing that what is to the interest of the farmer is also to theirs, they work to that end and have always succeeded. Liberal advances will be made on tobacco in store and good quarters are reserved for teams and teamsters.
